Voices of the Earth: People Helping People

Spring 2018
Concert & Poetry Series

Please join Notable Works at the Brooklyn Coffee and Tea House, 209 Douglas Ave., Providence, RI on March 4, April 8 and May 6, 2018 from 1:00 to 3:00 PM for our Spring 2018 Concert and Poetry Series. On March 4, 2018 Second Story Graphics of Providence and Ann Tanzi of Cranston will sponsor Notable Works' tribute to Amos House of Providence. On April 8, 2018, in the spirit of Earth Day, AAA Northeast, The State Ballet of Rhode Island and Kathy Gormley of Cranston will sponsor Notable Works' celebration of the dedicated work of the Nature Conservancy of Rhode Island which helps protect and preserve our state's natural treasures. And on May 6, 2018 Mary Zema Music and Turf Works of Warwick will sponsor Notable Works' tribute to McAuley House Ministries and the great work they are doing for Rhode Island's most vulnerable population. Please come and consider donating a little time to musical and poetic expression in honor of agencies, which are making a positive difference.

Amos House
Culinary Education Program

Joanne Lurgio, of Providence

Notable Works is proud to announce that Second Story Graphics of Providence and Ann Tanzi of Cranston will be sponsoring a concert and poetry reading entitled "Voices of the Earth: People Helping People" on Sunday, March 4, 2018 from 1:00 to 3:00 pm at the warm and cozy Brooklyn Coffee and Tea House of Providence. Notable Works will honor the successes of Amos House of Providence and will feature Rhode Island's well-known folk artist, Joanne Lurgio, named Motif Magazine's 2012 Female Vocalist of the Year. Also, singer songwriter Mary Zema and Notable Works' Artist in Residence, Noreen Inglesi as well as members of the Poetry Loft, will be participating in this event, which is open to the public. There will be a 50/50 raffle and admission is a suggested $5.00 donation at the door. Please join us and bring a can of coffee or a towel for Amos House and you will receive a free gift. Today Amos House is a leading social service agency in Rhode Island, which manages the largest soup kitchen in the state, provides social services to over 15,000 people a year and houses nearly 165 men, women and children a night. And as hundreds of adults have graduated from its training programs, Notable Works is proud to honor the dedicated staff and volunteers of Amos House of Providence, Rhode Island.

Other Performers Include:

"The Loft Anthology"
ForeWord Book of the Year Finalist

Mary Zema of Warwick

Noreen Inglesi, Notable Works' Artist in Residence

“Voices of the Earth: People Helping People”

By Noreen Inglesi

Valiant voices of the earth

Protecting those

Who've lost their way

Burnishing their enduring light

Providing safe havens

For the weary to stay

These voices judge not those who've

Lost rudder, oar and sail

They cast no harsh glance upon

Those who are frail

Selflessly they nurture all

Within their warmth and light

Letting no faltering soul slip

From their sheltering sight
