The Notable Works Ensemble
April 8, 2018 Concert and Poetry

Yvette Kenner, Administrator
McAuley House Ministries

As part of Notable Works' "Voices of the Earth: People Helping People" Spring 2018 Concert and Poetry Series at the Brooklyn Coffee and Tea House on April 8, 2018, Notable Works was pleased to feature the original works of our Artist In Residence, Noreen Inglesi, with the Notable Works Ensemble. Noreen musically and poetically depicted some of Rhode Island's most precious wildlife refuges, which the Nature Conservancy works to safeguard and protect. Keynote speaker, Jeanne Cooper, beautifully accentuated the performance with her original slides and spoke about some of the land and the endangered species that the Conservancy is dedicated to protecting. And poets from the Poetry Loft and Crosswinds Poetry shared their highly descriptive and creative poetry about the beauty of nature and our need to protect it for future generations. And the final Concert and Poetry Reading of the 2018 Spring Series was held on May 6, 2018 and was very well received with Jan Luby and Mary Zema at the helm honoring McAuley House Ministries. Yvette Kenner, Administrator of McAuley House Ministries, delivered a very informative and impassioned speech about the structure and the necessity of the Ministry, which provides shelter, meals and essential items needed for everyday living to local families and individuals "in crisis" in our state. Local businesses such as Lowes of North Providence, Walgreens and Walmart of Providence as well as members of the audience, donated large amounts of necessary items such as rain ponchos, baseball hats, hygiene items and hand sanitizers. Also, poets Beatrice Lazarus, Adele Bourne, Kim Baker and Marguerite Keil Flanders of the Poetry Loft did a great job with their very poignant verse concerning people and families in need. Thank you to everyone for making the Notable Works' 2018 Spring Concert and Poetry Reading Series such as great success and for supporting our mission.

St. Luke's Episcopal Church

We at Notable Works feel that the historic St. Luke's Episcopal Church is an ideal setting for Michael DiMucci's performance of arias and other traditional favorites. This religious sanctuary is known for its great outreach to the community and for its superb choirs, currently directed by Rodney Ayers, Minister of Music.
