

F A L L O F 2 0 1 9

Notable Notes

Notable Works Publication and Distribution Co., Inc.

Notable Works' Fall 2019 Upcoming Events

Voices of the Earth: The Future of Our Planet

Available at:

Barrington Books
Garden City

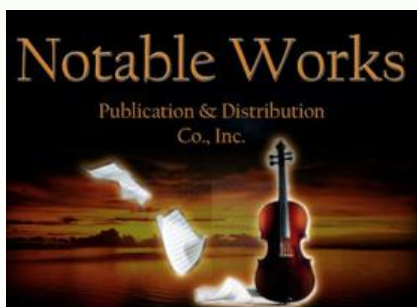

Barrington Books
Barrington

Books On The Square
East Side, Providence

Stillwater Books
175 Main St., Pawtucket

Wakefield Books
Wakefield Mall

Also available at:
www.notableworks.org

Thursday, October 3, 2019 3:30 PM to 10 PM

Texas Roadhouse of East Greenwich will host a Fall Fundraiser to benefit Notable Works' projects for families in need. There will be great food, raffles, prizes, country music and more and please call Bina at (401) 585-4037 or email: binagehres@cox.net for your special voucher. If you present this voucher to the waiter or waitress, Notable Works will receive 10% of your total food bill that evening. Also, it's still not too late to purchase 50/50 Raffle tickets for a chance to win one half of the money collected from the raffle. Tickets are 3 for $5.00 and 9 for $10.00. The raffle will be drawn at 9:30 the evening of this fall fundraiser at the Roadhouse. You need not be present to win.

Tuesday, October 8, 2019 from 7 PM to 7:45 PM (Free Admission)

Please join Notable Works at Books on The Square located at 471 Angell Street, on Providence's East Side for a Book Signing and Poetry Reading from Notable Works' newly released books: Voices of the Earth: The Future of Our Planet. "Noreen, thank you for dropping off a copy of the book. I read it and thoroughly enjoyed it. I'm glad TNC's preserves and projects inspire your poetry and art!" John Torgan, State Director of The Nature Conservancy Rhode Island Chapter and Love Warms The Homeless Heart. "I have had nothing but great feedback from our guests about the book. They love the combination of poetry with the very useful listing of services, all bound in one book." Jessica Salter, Amos House. This event will feature poet David Dragone of Crosswinds Poetry; flutist and poet Dalita Getzoyan; Noreen Inglesi, poet and Editor In Chief of both books; poet Thomas Lane, singer songwriter and poet Jan Luby and Mary Ann Rossoni of Second Story Graphics who designed and illustrated both books.

Saturday, October 26, 2019 at 1:30 PM (Free Admission)

We hope that you will consider attending Notable Works' Concert and Poetry Reading at the North Providence Union Free Library located at 1810 Mineral Spring Ave. in North Providence, Rhode Island. At this event, Notable Works' Artist In Residence Noreen Inglesi and the Notable Works Ensemble will feature original music and poetry focusing on Rhode Island's natural environment and precious resources. Special guests include poets Nicole DiPaolo and David Dragone and performer Shawna Southern. Alicia Lehrer, the Executive Director of The Woonasquatucket River Watershed Council, will present a special slide show presentation. Special thanks to Lowes Home Improvement of North Providence for their extraordinary help with this event. Please come and enjoy great music, poetry, raffles, refreshments and more.

Notable Works'
2019 Gold Sponsors:

Aristocrat Dental Lab
Belmont Market
Captain's Catch Seafood
Champlin's Seafood Retail Store and Restaurant
Ana Marsden Fox, of the State
Ballet of Rhode Island
Mr. and Mrs. William Paolino
Pools Plus Inc.
Jennifer Scungio
South County Sand and Gravel Company, Inc.
Charles Schwab Corporation
Dr. Rudy Tanzi

Notable Works'
Board of Directors

Tina Bernard: Finance Manager
Marie Caluori
David Dragone
Bina Gehres: Director
Mary Inglesi: Secretary
Noreen Inglesi: Artist in Residence and Treasurer
Ellie Lomme
Megan Lourenco
Barbara Pavone
Mary Ann Rossoni: Graphic Designer
Alison Shea
Ann Tanzi: Fundraiser Coordinator

www.notableworks.org

Summer Concert and Poetry Reading
At the First Baptist Church of Cross Mills

Maria Bilyeu, cello

It was an enjoyable as well as an enlightening and inspirational summer Sunday afternoon in Charlestown where Notable Works kicked off "The Music For The Soul" Summer Concert Series on June 30, 2019 at 3 PM. This event was arranged by choirmaster Tina Bernard of Wakefield, Rhode Island. The main word here is "enlightened" as Thomas Lane of Providence recited his poem "Storm." All became dark outside and right at the crescendo, a large clap of thunder shook this beautiful little church headed by Pastor Linda Moore. There was much talent there that day, from Noreen's song "Gonna Ride That Moontide" about all joining hands to save a swimmer from the deadly current, to David Dragone of Crosswinds Poetry reciting his poem "Forms of Violence" about the disappearance of the entire homing pigeon population. There was inspiration throughout and Nancy Carroll and Dave McNally brought us all together with Nancy's original historical songs. Indeed her pieces about our state brought to light the deep pride we all feel for this special place we call home called Rhode Island

Thomas Lane, poet

Nancy Carroll, Rhody Voices